THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD, PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

AUGUST A. BUSCH, JR.

August A. Busch, Jr., became president of the Cardinals when Anheuser-Busch, Inc. purchased the club in February, 1953.

Mr. Busch is honorary chairman of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. The company has main offices in St. Louis with breweries in St. Louis; Newark, NJ; Los Angeles, CA; Tampa, FL; Houston, TX; Columbus, OH; Jacksonville, FL; Merrimack, NH; Williamsburg, VA; Fairfield, CA; and Baldwinsville, NY.

Mr. Busch started his career with the company in 1924 as general superintendent. He was elected sixth vice president in 1926, and in 1931, was elected vice president and a member of the board of directors. He became president in 1946, chairman of the board in April, 1956 and honorary chairman of the board in April, 1977.

He was commissioned a major in the U.S. Army Ordnance Department, in 1942. In July, 1945, he retired from active service with the rank of colonel. For his wartime service, he received several citations and the award of the Legion of Merit.

Mr. Busch served as president of the St. Louis Bicentennial Corporation, formed to give leadership and planning to the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the founding of St. Louis.

He served for 13 years as Chairman of the Board of Civic Progress, Inc., a nonprofit organization of civic leaders devoted to the revitalization of the St. Louis area; was chairman of St. Louis University's successful $18,000,000 Development Fund Drive; a director of Centerre Trust Company, Centerre Bank, and St. Louis Municipal Opera.

Mr. Busch received the Fleur-de-lis Award, the highest award given by St. Louis University, in November, 1960; received The Man and Boy Award from the National Boys' Club of America in November, 1966; was presented the "Citizen No. 1" award from the Press Club of Metropolitan St. Louis in 1967; and received an Honorary Doctorate of Laws Degree from St. Louis University in 1966.

In 1975, Mr. Busch was elected to the Missouri Sports of Hall of Fame. Then St. Louis Mayor, John Poelker, proclaimed Mr. Busch as "Special Ambassador for the City of St. Louis." In addition, Mr. Busch was the recipient of the Levee Stone Award from Downtown St. Louis, Inc., and the Spirit of St. Louis Award from St. Louis University.

Mr. Busch served as chairman of the fund-raising drive for the St. Louis Convention Center and was honored by the Convention and Visitors Bureau for his efforts. In addition, a hall at the St. Louis Convention Center has been named in his honor.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
FRED L. KUHLMANN

Fred Kuhlmann became executive vice president and chief operating officer of the Cardinals on November 5, 1984, and had the pleasure of seeing them win the National League Championship in 1985, his first year with the team.

Although his connection with the Cardinals in past years had been as Executive Vice-President of Anheuser-Busch Companies, which owns the ball club, he had maintained a lively interest in the Cardinals dating from his boyhood when he grew up in the vicinity of old Sportsman's Park.

Kuhlmann, born April 24, 1916, in St. Louis, has law degrees from Washington University of St. Louis and Columbia University, and was a senior partner in a law firm until he joined Anheuser-Busch in 1967 as general counsel. Subsequently he became executive vice president and vice chairman of the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch. He retired from Anheuser-Busch in December, 1983, but still serves as vice chairman of the board and as a consultant to the company. He is chairman of the board of Civic Center Corporation, one of the Anheuser-Busch companies and owner of Busch Stadium. He is also a member of baseball's Player Relations Committee.

He and his wife, Mildred, who live in Frontenac, have two children, Marilyn K. Brickler and F. Mark Kuhlmann.

VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER
DAL MAXVILL

Dal Maxvill returned to the St. Louis Cardinals organization as general manager on February 25, 1985, dedicated to the same ideas that guided him as a player on three St. Louis pennant-winning teams in the 60s. Maxvill's primary goal was to produce a winning, exciting team for Cardinal fans.

Maxvill came through for the fans of St. Louis in 1985, just like he had done so many times while playing in the 60s. He oversaw his second pennant-winning club in three seasons during '87 after continually being faced with the task of supplying manager Whitey Herzog with healthy players during the injury-riddled season.

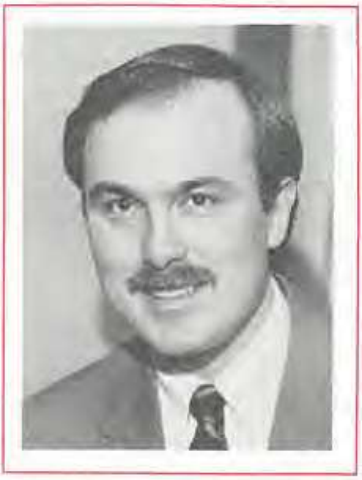
A native of Granite City, IL, Maxvill was an outstanding infielder during his 14-year major league career, 11 of which were spent in a Redbird uniform. During those 14 campaigns, Dal was on four World Series winning teams.

In 1978, after a brief stint away from baseball, Maxvill joined the coaching staff of the New York Mets. He returned to the Cardinals as a coach during the 1979-80 season.

In 1982, Dal became the third base coach of the Atlanta Braves, a position he held until his appointment as general manager of the Cardinals.

The 50-year-old Maxvill and his wife, Diana, are the parents of four children — Kathy (Mrs. Bill Behr), Danny, Jeff and Tim. Kathy is the mother of Kelli Marie Behr, the Maxvill's first grandchild, born in 1986.

VICE PRESIDENT / FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION
MARK GORRIS



Mark Gorris joined the Cardinals organization on January 1, 1987, as director of business administration and was heavily involved in the club's broadcasting activities including the negotiations of contracts with KPLR-TV and Cencom Cable on the Redbirds television schedule. He was named Vice President of Finance and Administration in December of 1987. In his new position, Gorris was placed in charge of all financial and administrative functions.

Gorris, who holds B.S. and B.A. degrees from Washington University and a M.B.A. from St. Louis University, began working for Anheuser-Busch with Busch Entertainment Corp. in 1982 and was named manager of planning for Civic Center Corporation in 1985.

A native St. Louisan, Gorris and his wife, Diane, are the parents of three children — Austin, Andrea and Alissa.

VICE PRESIDENT / MARKETING
MARTY HENDIN

Marty Hendin joined the Cardinals in May 1973 as assistant public relations director. He became promotions director in 1978 and was named to the newly-created position of director of marketing in 1984. In December, 1987, he was named Vice President of Marketing. As Vice President of Marketing he is in charge of the Cardinals' sales and promotions efforts. Also included in his activities are advertising, licensing, special events and community relations.

A graduate of University City High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis, Marty is a past president of the UMSL Alumni Association. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Advertising Club of Greater St. Louis, and also serves on the Downtown St. Louis Inc. Marketing Committee and the St. Louis Symphony Creative Committee. Marty was selected Ad Man of the Year for 1987 by the Advertising Club of Greater St. Louis.

He resides in west St. Louis County with his wife, Ronna, and son, Robbie.

THE MANAGER, COACHES AND PLAYERS

THE MANAGER

DORREL NORMAN (WHITEY) HERZOG (24)

The 1989 season marks Whitey Herzog's 10th season as manager of the Cardinals. With each Redbird victory, Herzog, who before the season ranked 28th on the all-time managerial win list, continues to earn his distinction of being one of the game's truly great managers.

Whitey's club was hampered by injuries throughout much of the '88 campaign, but the Cardinals' skipper upped his managerial win total with the Redbirds to 703, second only to Red Schoendienst's 1,028 Cardinal victories.

Herzog, who has guided the Cardinals to three National League Championships and one World Championship in his nine seasons as manager, was given a contract extension thru the 1990 season in June of 1987.

In Whitey's case, he has managed with something of a flair and a flourish. In the 12 full seasons he has managed, he has had six division winners and one World Championship. (His Cardinals also had the best overall divisional record in 1981, when the players' strike split the season, and the Redbirds finished second in each half).

With managerial service in four partial seasons in addition, the "White Rat," as he is often called (affectionately, by the way) has assembled a won-lost record of 1162-1002. He has had partial seasons at Texas, California, Kansas City and St. Louis.

In four full seasons at Kansas City, he had three titles and one second-place finish. In his eight full seasons at St. Louis, he had the league championship and World Series victory in 1982, another National League title in 1985 and yet another National League title in 1987.

He was named "Manager of the Year" in 1976 by UPI and the Baseball Bulletin, and in 1982 by The Sporting News and UPI. The UPI also named him "Executive of the Year" in 1981 and 1982, and The Sporting News made him "Man of the Year" in 1982. In 1985, he was voted "Manager of the Year" by the Baseball Writers' Association of America for taking a club generally picked to finish last, and winding up in the seventh game of the World Series.

Herzog became the Cardinals' manager on June 9, 1980, succeeding Ken Boyer and inheriting a 19-34 last-place record. Whitey managed until August 29, with a 38-35 mark, and then moved up to the job of general manager. He became manager again in October, while retaining the GM's hat, too.

After greatly transforming the Cardinals with two winters of off-season trades, putting together a team he thought could win, Herzog turned over the general manager's title to Joe McDonald on April 10, 1982, then went on to manage the Cardinals to the World Championship.

He logged eight years in the majors as a player, including stints with Washington, Kansas City, Baltimore and Detroit, as an outfielder-first baseman. His last year as a player was 1963 with the Tigers. Whitey was originally signed by the New York Yankees immediately following his graduation from New Athens High School.

Whitey, 5-11, 195, was born November 9, 1931, in New Athens, IL. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three children: Debra (1/31/55) is married to Kirk Urich and they live in Blue Springs, MO, with two children - Kristen, 8 and John, 6; David (9/8/57), his wife, Karen, and son Jacob, 5, live in Charlotte, NC; and Jim (8/11/61) lives in Keystone, CO. Whitey and Mary Lou moved from Independence, MO, during the off-season and now reside in St. Louis. Whitey got his nickname (because of his light-colored hair) from Bill Speith, a McAlester sportscaster. Herzog's first book - "White Rat" - came out in the spring of 1987 and he opened a restaurant in St. Louis, "Whitey Herzog's Powerhouse," this past October. In his spare time Whitey is an avid bass fisherman and skier.

THE COACHES

RICH HACKER (7)

Rich Hacker, a native of nearby New Athens, IL, is the Cardinals' third base coach. He was added to the staff before the 1986 season to succeed Hal Lanier, who resigned to become manager of the Houston Astros.

Hacker originally came to the Cardinals in November, 1981, to fill the role of minor league manager and special assignment scout. He managed at Johnson City, TN, in 1982, 1983 and 1985, and was at Erie, PA, in 1984. In 1985, at Johnson City, his club finished second, ten games above .500.

As a player, Hacker was drafted and signed by the New York Mets in 1967, following his graduation from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale. As a shortstop he had a brief stay in the majors in 1971 with the Montreal Expos.

He was a minor league manager and scout for the San Diego Padres in 1979 and 1980 and midwest area scout for the Toronto Blue Jays in 1981.

Hacker, 41, lives with his wife, Kathryn, two sons, Roger Paul (9/16/77) and Scott Alexander (6/8/81) and a daughter, Katie Ann (9/26/83), in Belleville, IL. He is a nephew of former major league pitcher Warren Hacker. Rich, during his spare time enjoys deer, quail and duck hunting; bass fishing; and skiing.

JOHNNY LEWIS (8)

Johnny Lewis joined the Cardinals' coaching staff early in the 1985 season to work on hitting with some of the younger players. Lewis proved especially helpful to Vince Coleman.

Lewis had spent the three previous years in the Redbirds' minor league organization as a hitting instructor and had managed for five years prior to that.

Johnny started his St. Louis career in 1959 as an outfielder, and played in the major leagues with the Cardinals and New York Mets. While with the Mets, he hit a 10th inning homer to break up a no-hitter by the Cincinnati Reds' Jim Maloney in 1965. He retired as a player after the 1968 season.

He worked in the Cardinals' front office as assistant promotions and sales director for two years and was farm system administrative assistant in 1972. He joined the Cardinals' coaching staff in March, 1973, and remained for four years.

He then managed for five years in the minors—at Calgary in 1977 and 1978, at Gastonia in 1979 and at Johnson City in 1980 and 1981.

Lewis, 49, was born in Greenville, AL, and he now lives in St. Louis, where he sells real estate during the off-season.

DAVID WILLIAM RICKETTS (3)

In his second tour as a Cardinal coach, Dave has been with the St. Louis club since 1978. He previously had filled the same job in 1974 and '75. As a Cardinal minor league manager in-between, he led Sarasota to a third-place finish in 1976 and had a similar result at Johnson City in 1977.

He originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957 as a catcher, and spent all of the 1967-68-69 seasons with the Red Birds as a back-up catcher and pinch-hitter and appeared in both the 1967 and 1968 World Series. His last season as a player was with Pittsburgh in 1970. He served the Pirates as bullpen coach from 1971 through 1973 but then returned to the Cardinal organization in 1974.

Ricketts, 53, was born in Pottstown, PA, but now makes his home in St. Louis with his wife, Barbara. Their daughter, Candy, is a graduate of Temple University (School of Business), and is employed in Philadelphia. For many years, Ricketts coached basketball at John Fisher College in Rochester in the off-season.

He received his bachelor of arts degree from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinal pitcher.

JIM RIGGLEMAN (16)

Jim Riggleman is entering into his first season as a coach at the major league level after spending parts of seven years as a manager in the Cardinals' minor league system.

Riggleman, who was named the Cardinals' Director of Player Development last June, moved back to the playing field when it was announced that former Cardinal coach Nick Leyva was taking over the manager's position at Philadelphia.

The 36-year-old Riggleman was the Los Angeles Dodgers 4th selection in the June, 1974, free-agent draft. The Cardinals acquired Jim from the Dodgers organization in 1976, and he went on to spend eight seasons as an infielder/outfielder in the Cardinals farm system before being named as a coach at Arkansas (AA) in 1981.

Riggleman's first managerial position was at St. Petersburg (A) from 1982-84. He managed at Arkansas from 1985-88, before being named the Director of Player Development.

Riggleman graduated from Frostburg (MD) State College in 1974, where he played both baseball and basketball. He was a NAIA All-American baseball selection in 1974.

Riggleman, who was born in Ft. Dix, NJ, and now resides in St. Petersburg, FL, enjoys reading and watching movies in his spare time.

MIKE ROARKE (4)

For the three previous seasons, Mike had been pitching coach for the Pawtucket Club of the International League in the Boston Red Sox organization. He worked only at home games while continuing to pursue a career as an insurance agent.

He started coaching following his retirement as a player after the 1964 season. He had three years each with the Detroit Tigers and the California Angels, then became a minor league manager at Toledo, Evansville and Wichita over a five-year period. In 1976 and '77 he was a roving pitching instructor for the Chicago Cubs, then moved to the majors with the Cubs from 1978 through 1980.

As a player, he caught for the Tigers from 1961 through 1964 and had eight minor league seasons before that.

He was a 1952 graduate of Boston College, where he lettered in baseball and football. He and his wife, Merry Sue, live in Cranston, RI. They have one son and four daughters — Susan (12/29/59), Thomas (2/6/61), Karen (11/17/63), Janet (9/2/65) and Kelly (4/18/73).

ALBERT FRED SCHOENDIENST (2)

"Red" returned to the Redbird coaching ranks in 1979. He coached in St. Louis from 1961 to '64 under manager Johnny Keane. He then began a 12-year stint as Cardinal manager, the longest anyone has occupied the position. As manager, he led the Cardinals to National League pennants in 1967 and '68, and the World Championship in 1967. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds for the last part of the 1980 season when Whitey Herzog moved from the field to occupy the general manager's position for the Cardinals. "Red" also spent two seasons coaching at Oakland in 1977 and '78.

Schoendienst was a Cardinal player for 14 years. He was an outstanding second baseman and hitter. He played in the 1946 World Series for the Cardinals and in 1957 and '58 for Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 National League All-Star game squads and played in nine of the games. He also managed the National League All-Star team to victories in 1968 and 1969.

As a player, he appeared in 2,216 games, had 2,449 hits with a lifetime batting average of .289. Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987 . . . during his playing career, Red participated with the Budweiser National Bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Illinois, and is married to the former Mary Eileen O'Reilly. They have four married children — Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1978 - California Angels' No. 1 pick in the regular phase of the June draft. 1979 - Batted .270 with a career best of 23 HR and 76 RBI for Salinas . . . walked 100 times in 140 games. 1980 - Named to the Class AA All-Star team picked by the National Association and Topps Chewing Gum . . . his 103 runs scored ranked second in the Texas League . . . on June 18 vs. Midland, he hit four consecutive HR and had nine RBI in a 19-9 win . . . the four straight HR tied several league and club records . . . had a two-run homer in the first, a solo shot in the second and three-run homers in the fourth and fifth . . . had a two-run homer in the Texas League All-Star Game July 9 at San Antonio . . . was promoted to Salt Lake City where he hit .344 in nine games. 1981 - A solid spring led to Brunansky's jump from Class AA to a starting berth in left field on Opening Night at Seattle . . . two days later he reached the zenith by hitting a pair of two-run home runs to help the Angels defeat the Mariners. However, by month's end, with the club not hitting well and Brunansky struggling with a .152 average he was quickly dispatched to Salt Lake City for more seasoning . . . another fine major league year (he finished ninth in the Pacific Coast League batting derby at .332) was curtailed on August 8 . . . tore ligaments in his left thumb while trying to make a diving catch in the outfield and had surgery to repair the damage on August 10. 1982 - Was acquired by Twins in a trade with California Angels for pitcher Doug Corbett and second baseman Rob Wilfong . . . Tom was one of four Twins to hit at least 20 home runs in 1982, he hit for a consistently good average throughout the season; and his defensive skills, including range and throwing arm in right field, stamped him as surefire Gold Glove contender . . . spotlighted performances by Brunansky came on May 28, when he belted two home runs, one an inside-the-parker, off New York's Ron Guidry in the Metrodome, and on July 19, when he hit another inside-the-park home run in the Metrodome, this one with the bases loaded, off Milwaukee's Jerry Augustine . . . tough to move off the plate, Tom led the Twins by getting hit with eight pitches in . . . was named rightfielder on M.L. All-Rookie Team. 1983 - An aggravatingly slow start in which he didn't get his batting average over .200 to stay until July 13, kept Brunansky's statistical season from being a successful one . . . right from the go, however, Brunansky was tough in clutch situations and he wound up setting a Twins' club record with 15 game-winning RBI . . . Tom also led the club in home runs, getting two in a game on four occasions (equalling the most by a Twin since Harmon Killebrew had five such games in his Most Valuable Player season in 1969), and he tied for club-tops in triples . . . also had Twins' season high of six RBI in a game, sparking an 11-0 win in Boston

September 1 . . . first 4-hit game of Brunansky's career got him over the .200-level on July 13 vs New York, and starting with that game, Tom batted .263 the rest of the way . . . one of baseball's better rightfielders, he was fourth in the league with 16 outfield assists, second on the club to Gary Ward's 24, but Tom led all major league outfielders by participating in 8 doubleplays. 1984 - Brunansky hit the most home runs by a Twin since Harmon Killebrew connected for 41 in 1970, and in so doing moved into eighth place among Twins' career home run hitters all-time . . . Tom got off to his usual slow start, batting as low as .231 on July 19 . . . in 70 games after that, however, he batted .282, including 18 of his homers and 44 of his RBBI . . . had second 4-hit game of his career May 22, connecting off Luis Leal in Toronto. He turned in the longest hitting streak of his career, a 15-game August 14-28 . . . an excellent outfielder, had 13 assists. 1985 - Named to American League All-Star team . . . hit 3 homers in final round to win All-Star Home Run Contest for American League, July 15 . . . league batting leader during much of early season, batting .345 with 12 home runs and 33 RBI through games of May 24 . . . batted .206, 87-for-422, over final 117 games . . . tied club record of 13 sacrifice flies . . . led Twins in home runs, game winners (10), slugging-percentage (.448) and walks (71) . . . 14 assists were second on club and fourth among league outfielders. 1986 - Had third career 4-hit game, May 27 vs Toronto . . . had three 2-homer games to give him 10 for career . . . led Twins' outfielders with 10 assists . . . topped club baserunners with .750 stolen-base percentage . . . tied Kent Hrbek for club-lead of 7 sacrifice flies. 1987 - Hit third career grand-slam, May 20, off Tom Candiotti in Cleveland . . . had 11th career 2-homer game June 1 in Boston . . . had 40 multi-hit games . . . tied Dan Gladden for club leadership with 11 outfield assists . . . established personal highs in runs-scored (83) and walks (74), while equalling career-best in home runs (32) . . . led American League Championship Series in batting average (.412), total bases (17), doubles (4) and RBI (9), while tying for lead in runs, hits and home runs . . . his .259 batting average was highest mark since 1982 (.272) . . . 56 of Tom's 138 hits (41%) went for extra bases . . . was tied for fourth on club with 260 total bases . . . made 3 errors in rightfield for .990 fielding pct.

MISC: Has hit 137 home runs over last five years to rank in a tie for eighth with New York Yankees' Don Mattingly among major leaguers . . . married the former Colleen Schumann on 10/26/85 . . . brother-in-law of Montreal's Dave Engle . . . graduate of West Covina, CA, High School . . . turned down baseball-football scholarship at Stanford . . . attended Cal Poly at Pomona . . . played on West Covina's 1973 Pony League World Championship team . . . ranks fourth on the Twins' all-time home run list (166) . . . enjoys golfing . . . involved with Cystic Fibrosis and is Cardinals' 65 Roses chairman . . . lives in Walnut, CA.

M.L. SERVICE — 5.036.

1988 SEASON: Bothered by elbow problems from the outset, Cox only appeared in 13 games in his 4th full season with the Cardinals . . . made four spring training appearances, but pitched just 13 innings . . . earned his first victory of the season on April 13 vs Chicago when he allowed 3 runs in eight IP . . . made his longest outing of the season April 24 vs New York when he pitched 8.2 innings in Cards' 5-4 win . . . made his last start prior to being disabled April 29 at Los Angeles . . . was 2-3, 4.67 ERA in five starts prior to being sidelined . . . was placed on the 15-day disabled list April 30 and was moved to the 21-day D.L. on May 14 . . . had surgery to remove bone spur in his right elbow . . . was sent to Louisville June 16 to begin injury rehabilitation . . . Danny made three appearances at Louisville before being returned to the active roster on June 29 . . . made first start after being activated on June 29 vs Montreal and allowed just 2 runs in five IP . . . struck out a season-high seven batters twice (July 10 vs SF and July 31 at MTL) . . . was 1-5 in eight starts following return from the D.L., however Cards scored just 16 runs in eight games that Cox lost . . . suffered recurring elbow problems and was disabled for the remainder of the season on August 7 . . . averaged 6.2 IP per start . . . each of his three victories were saved by Todd Worrell . . . all three wins came at Busch Stadium . . . held right-handed batters to a .192 BA . . . 33 of his 47 strikeouts victims (70%) were righties.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1981 - Selected by St. Louis in 13th round of June free-agent draft and signed by Cardinals' scout Marty Maier . . . led Appalachian League pitchers in ERA, shutouts, strikeouts, complete games and innings pitched . . . pitched a 9-inning no-hit, no-run game August 9, in beating Bristol 11-0 . . . was named Appalachian League Player of the Year and was selected as Topps July Appalachian League player of the month . . . was selected on the League All-Star team. 1982 - Was selected on the League All-Star team. 1983 - Just 15 weeks to pass through every classification in the Cardinals' minor league organization and make it to the majors. He began the season at St. Louis' extended spring training and made short stops at the A, AA and AAA levels before being called up to St. Louis on August 4 after the Cardinals sold John Martin to Detroit . . . while at Arkansas, had a string of seven complete games in-a-row, struck out 73, walked only 21 and yielded only 60 hits in 86.1 innings . . . was a Texas League All-Star team selection . . . started just two games at Louisville before joining the Cardinals at Cooperstown on August 1 where he started and won a 4-1 decision over the Baltimore Orioles (soon to be World Series Champions) in the Hall of Fame Game . . . then returned to Louisville but was called up four days later . . . drew his first major league start on August 6 when he dueled with Steve Carlton and the Phillies in a game PHI won 1-0 in 11 innings . . . earned his first win on August 12 when he defeated HOU and Nolan Ryan, 5-2. 1984 - On opening day, pitched in relief for the Cardinals and, after allowing only two hits in four innings, emerged an 11-7 victor . . . after winning a start against PIT on April 14, hit the skids in a seven-game losing streak, had a one-time attack of a tender shoulder, and was 3-8 when he was optioned to Louisville to straighten things out . . . after a month and four days at Louisville, where he was 4-1 with a 2.13 ERA and his control problems solved, returned to St. Louis and was 6-3 in 13 starts the rest of the season . . . ERA in his second stint was 3.72 compared to an earlier 4.33. High point of the season was a 1-0 three-hit shutout of the Montreal Expos on September 19. 1985 - In first full big league season, as Cardinal #3 starter . . . was among league leaders in 5 pitching categories (wins, IP, CG, SHO and ERA) . . . had a string of 23 consecutive scoreless innings from 6/10 (5th inning) - 6/20 (9th inning) . . . teamed with Joaquin Andujar and John Tudor to give the Redbirds its largest winning trio since 1935 (D. Dean , 28 wins; P. Dean, 19; Hallahan, 15) . . . hurled a pair of two hitters, on 5/31 vs Cincinnati (in which Cox faced only 29 batters and had a perfect game through 7-2/3 innings before Concepcion broke it up with a single) and 9/5 vs Chicago (in which Cox walked one, struck out five and faced only 29 batters) . . . won 9 of first 11 decisions, and was 11-4 at All-Star Break earning consideration for all-star honors . . . completed 5 of 6 starts between 5/26 and 6/20, with three shutouts . . . equalled career high 8 strikeouts vs Montreal on 9/20 . . . finished the season with three straight victories, including a 4-3 triumph over the Mets on Oct. 3 that all but put away the division title, giving the Cardinals a two-game edge with three to play . . . in post-season play, won Game #3 of LCS against the Dodgers after the Redbirds had lost the first two games . . . in the World Series, he was the starter in Games #2 (which the Cardinals won) and Game #6 (which they lost after he was out of the game) . . . he had a 1.80 ERA in post-season. 1986 - Battled back to 12-13 record after poor start (0-4, 2-7 early in season) brought about at least in part by a chip fracture of his right ankle suffered during spring training at St. Petersburg on 3/30 . . . while fishing he jumped off a low sea wall and turned his ankle which resulted in a stretch on the 21-day disabled list at the start of the season . . . after seven scoreless innings of rehabilitation in an extended training game on 4/19 at St. Pete, Cox was activated on 4/24 . . . on 6/1 at CIN, in his eighth start of the season, he defeated the Reds, 2-1, for his first win of the season . . . three-hit the Phillies on 7/28 in 3-1 complete game win at PHI . . . equalled his career high 8 strikeouts in 7/28 outing . . . had a decision in 18 of his last 19 starts . . . was 9-5 in last 15 starts, and did not allow more than three earned runs in any of them . . . pitched CG in 6 of last 11 starts . . . over a four start period from 7/18-8/3 did not allow a walk (28 innings) . . . limited opponents to .234 average (189-for-808) . . . averaged 4.42 strikeouts and 2.45 walks per 9 IP . . . was sixth in National League ERA (2.90) and tied for fifth in complete games (8) . . . was second among N.L. batters with 16 sacrifice hits. 1987 - Was the Cardinals #1 starter from the right side . . . got the season off to a good start by recording eight strikeouts on April 9 at Chicago, equalling his single game high . . . won four of his first five decisions . . . on April 23 vs CHI. Cox became the first Cardinals pitcher since Jim Kaat on July 1, 1980 to pitch a complete game with no walks or strikeouts . . . it also marked the first complete game by a Cardinal pitcher in '87 . . . Danny also went 2-for-3 at the plate in that contest . . . started 31 games, making him the only Cardinal pitcher to start at least 25 games in each of the last three seasons . . . recorded his 50th career win with a 3-0 combined shutout on July 4 at Atlanta . . . won 10 or more games for the 3rd straight season . . . was struck by a line drive off the bat of San Francisco's Mike Aldrete on July 9 at St. Louis . . . fractured the fifth metatarsal in his right foot causing him to be placed on the disabled list from July 10 to August 8 . . . was the second consecutive season that Cox had suffered a broken bone (suffered chip fracture of the right ankle prior to 1986 season which caused him to miss first month) . . . Cox was 8-3 prior to his injury and went 3-6 after coming off the D.L. . . . was 4-2 in his six starts against Chicago . . . was among club leaders in innings pitched (199.1), victories (11), and strikeouts (101) . . . opponents batted .290 (224-for-772) vs Cox . . . earned his 10th win of the season on Sept. 22 vs Philadelphia in 3-2 Cardinal victory . . . his complete game victory over Montreal on Oct. 1 gave Cardinals division clinching win . . . was slated to start Game #1 of the NLCS, but had to be held out due to a stiff neck . . . made his first start vs the Giants in Game #4 dropping a 4-2 decision in a rout-going effort at Candlestick Park . . . came back on three day's rest to start Game #7 and shutout the Giants 6-0 in the National League Championship clinching victory at Busch Stadium . . . was Card's starter in Game #2 of the World Series and was loser in 8-4 Twins victory . . . gave the Cards a 3 games to 2 edge with 4-2 win in Game #5, in which he held the Twins to 5 hits in 7.1 IP . . . was loser in Game #7 when he allowed one run in 2/3 IP after relieving Joe Magrane in the 5th . . . working on just two days rest, Cox walked three of the five batters he faced . . . was 2-3 with a 4.40 ERA in the post-season.

MISC: Graduated from Warner Robbins, Georgia, High School in 1977 . . . played varsity baseball, football and basketball . . . attended Chattahoochee Valley (Alabama) J.C. and Troy State University, Troy, Alabama . . . majored in General Business . . . played baseball and was named to All-American team his senior year . . . prior to 1983, the last time the Cardinals played in the Hall of Fame Game (1966), they called up from minors a little-known pitcher named Steve Carlton. He was promoted to the big leagues for good, four days after he turned in a 7-5 win over the Twins on July 25, 1966 . . . ironically, Cox's college baseball coach was Chase Riddle (formerly a Cardinals' scout) who originally helped to sign Carlton to a Cardinal contract . . . was the 13th European-born player to participate in a World Series game . . . joined George Calmers (Scotland) for PHI in 1915 Series and Bert Blyleven (Holland) for PIT in 1979 Series and 1987 for MIN as only European-born starting pitchers in W.S. play . . . has career mark of 23-14 in starts following losses . . . married the former Nancy Roach (1/27/89) . . . enjoys fishing and hunting.

Born: 2-25-59 at Jerome, Idaho

BECAME CARDINAL — June 15, 1984 along with infielder Mike Jorgensen in a trade with Atlanta for Ken Oberkfell.

1988 SEASON: Dayley's season was put on hold early, when he suffered a torn muscle in his lower back while pitching on opening day at Cincinnati . . . Ken was placed on the 15-day disabled list April 5 and was sidelined until May 11 . . . after returning from the D.L., the left-hander allowed just one run in his first nine appearances and boasted a 0.87 ERA on June 1 . . . only allowed one earned run in last 16 appearances (20.2 IP, 0.44 ERA) . . . was involved in two combined shutouts, 8/16 vs HOU and 9/8 vs PHI . . . struck out a season-high 4 batters 9/19 vs PIT . . . held opponents to a .239 BA . . . struck out 13 batters in last six outings (9.1 IP) . . . was second on club in games (54), saves (5) and games finished (21) . . . recorded 300th career strikeout 9/19 vs PIT . . . was unscored upon in 37 of 54 (69%) relief appearances . . . allowed just two home runs in 55.1 IP . . . was successful in 5 of 8 save opportunities . . . induced the Astros' Jim Pankovits to ground into a triple play during 8th inning of August 16 contest at Busch Stadium . . . longest scoreless streak of the year was 9.1 IP (8/16-28) . . . allowed just 16 of 58 inherited runners to score . . . averaged 6.2 strikeouts and 3.1 walks per 9 IP . . . posted 4 saves and a 1.71 ERA in 32 games at Busch Stadium.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1980 - Selected by Atlanta in the first round (3rd player selected) of the June free-agent draft and signed by Braves' scouts Bill Wright and Charlie Silvera . . . went directly to double—A where he fashioned an 8-3 record with a 2.57 ERA and 104 strikeouts in 105 innings. 1981 - Led International League in games started, innings pitched, strikeouts and tied for league lead in wins. 1982 - Opened the season at AAA, but was promoted to major leagues in early May . . . first M.L. appearance came in start vs St.L. on 5/13 . . . gave up 5 hits and 4 runs in 1.1 innings . . . gained first M.L. win 5/19 vs MTL going 6.2 innings and allowing only 3 hits and 1 run . . . with a 4-6 mark was returned to AAA early in Aug., but was recalled on 9/1 working 5 games in relief the remainder of the year. 1983 - Opened season at AAA winning first five decisions to give him nine straight at Richmond, dating back to '82 season . . . promoted to ATL, where he spent the remainder of year, was inconsistent while splitting time between starting and relieving. 1984 - Started the year at Atlanta, but after acquiring an 0-3 record in four starts, was sent to Richmond . . . there, was impressive with a 5-1 mark in 9 appearances and an ERA of 4.04. Traded to the Cardinals, he couldn't seem to get on the right track, and after 3 appearances (2 starts) he had added two more defeats and no victories . . . optioned to Louisville, he had a 4-6 record and 3.27 ERA in 13 starts, with 3 complete games. On the plus side, he walked only 22 and struck out 79 in 96.1 innings with the American Association champions. Ken did not join the Cardinals in Sept. after Louisville season ended because rest was prescribed for an abdominal muscle spasm from which he was suffering. 1985 - He got off to a remarkable start, allowing only 1 run, 15 hits and striking out 15 in his first 13 appearances, covering 18.2 innings . . . over 8 appearances from 4/26-5/22 worked 12.2 scoreless innings . . . recorded first major league save on 5/9 at LA in 5-4 St. Louis win . . . struck out 5 of 10 batters at NY on 6/7 . . . struck out the side in one scoreless inning of relief at LA on 7/18 . . . from June 21 to July 26, he pitched 11 innings (11 games) in which he was unscored on and allowed only 4 hits and fanned 13 . . . went six appearances (5.2 IP) without allowing a run from 8/10-18 and picked up saves 8 and 9 . . . notched save #10 on 8/22 at HOU to give the Cardinals two hurlers with double figure saves for the first time since 1975 . . . led the club in appearances and strikeouts per innings pitched (averaged .9 K's per IP) . . . his 11 saves were second on the club to Jeff Lahti's 19 . . . in post-season play, was near-perfect . . . he allowed only 3 hits and walked 4 in 12 innings, striking out 8 as he appeared in 9 of the 13 games . . . had two saves against the Dodgers in the League Championship Series . . . was the only pitcher in the World Series who appeared in two or more games that was not scored on. 1986 - Got off to rough start, allowing a run or more in 8 of first 11 appearances (13 ER in 17 IP, 6.88 ERA) . . . completely turned it around from 5/21 till he went on the disabled list 7/13 . . . was unscored on in 17 of 20 appearances (1 ER in 21.2 IP, 0.42 ERA) . . . included in that span was a stretch of 18.2 IP without an earned run allowed . . . recorded seven strikeouts in four innings of relief 4/19 at MTL, high for a Cardinals relief pitcher in '86 . . . appeared as a pinch-hitter 5/16 at ATL (popped out) . . . allowed only one home run over season (5/1 vs LA, Marshall), and over last two seasons has yielded only three in 104 IP (1 every 34.2 IP) . . . averaged 7.68 strikeouts per 9 IP . . . had at least one strikeout in 18 of 31 appearances . . . was placed on disabled list on 7/16 retroactive to 7/13 with continuing elbow stiffness . . . missed the remainder of season and underwent surgery in October by Dr. Frank Jobe to repair damaged ligament on the inside of his left elbow and to transfer nerves nearby. 1987 - Made a miraculous recovery from career-threatening off-season elbow surgery . . . became the Cardinals #1 shortman out of the bullpen from the left side . . . underwent surgery during the fall of 1986 by Dr. Frank Jobe to repair damaged ligament on the inside of his left elbow and to transpose the ulnar nerve . . . began his comeback on May 12 when he pitched 2 innings for the Louisville Redbirds at Indianapolis . . . was activated from the disabled list on May 21 . . . made his first appearance with the Cardinals on May 21 at Atlanta by pitching two perfect innings of relief . . . picked up his first victory of the season on June 28 at Montreal in Cards' extra inning victory . . . followed up the very next day with his first save of the year at New York . . . won three games in four days (7/19-23) during Cardinals trip to the West Coast following the All-Star break . . . tied for the N.L. high with five wins in July . . . surpassed his career high when he posted his sixth victory of the season on July 31 vs the Pirates . . . was the victor in the Cards' dramatic 10-inning come-from-behind win at New York on Sept. 11 . . . Dayley's 9 wins during '87 surpassed his previous high of five set in 1982 and 1983 while with Atlanta . . . faced 260 batters and recorded 200 outs (77%) . . . was second on the club with 29 games finished . . . Ken averaged 9.3 strikeouts and 4.9 walks per 9 IP . . . his 63 strikeouts were second only to his previous high of 70 in 1983 . . . Wilson, Raines, Coleman) . . . was selected best baserunner and defensive infielder in the National League in a poll of Major League managers following the season . . . struck out just 14 times vs left-handed pitchers . . . was selected to the UPI National League All-Star team.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1977 - Selected by San Diego in fourth round of June free-agent draft and signed by Padres' scouts Cliff Ditto and Bob Fontaine . . . led Northwest League shortstops in assists (254), double plays (40) and fielding pct. (.943) . . . led loop in stolen bases with 30 . . . during the off-season caught the eye of Padres brass with .323 avg. in Arizona Instructional League. 1978 - Became SD regular shortstop after only 68 games in the minor leagues . . . played in 159 games, leading the league in sacrifice hits with 28 and finishing 4th in stolen bases with 40 . . . was runner-up to Atlanta's Bob Horner for Rookie of the Year honors. 1979 - Led N.L. shortstops with 555 assists . . . was League's 5th toughest hitter to fan (1 every 17.54 AB). 1980 - Capped a sensational defensive season at shortstop by winning his first Gold Glove after setting a new major league record for assists by a shortstop . . . set the new mark September 26 vs Dodgers when he surpassed a mark Pittsburgh's Glenn Wright had established in 1924. Wright's mark was 601 assists and Oz finished the season with 621 . . . also participated in more double plays than any other N.L. shortstop . . . may have set the stage for his season by handling 16 total chances, including 12 assists, April 12 vs SF . . . joined with Gene Richards and Jerry Mumphrey to become the first trio in N.L. history to all steal 50 bases in same season - Smith (57), Richards (61), Mumphrey (52) . . . led league with 23 sacrifice hits. 1981 - Played in all 110 games, tying for N.L. high . . . league leader in at-bats with 450 . . . led N.L. shortstops in assists, total chances and fielding pct. 1982 - Was the N.L.'s best shortstop on a percentage basis, won his third straight Gold Glove and led the league in assists for the fourth straight year . . . 984 fielding percentage is a Cardinal season record for a shortstop . . . not only did he maintain his level of performance on the field, but Ozzie also emerged as a solid hitter after working with Cardinal coaches at spring training on developing his swing to take advantage of Busch's artificial turf . . . after missing only 13 games in his first four major league seasons, Smith was sidelined for 18 days late in the year due to a hematoma of his right thigh . . . Smith set a 7-game World Series record for most putouts by a shortstop with 22. In 1981 Smith maintained his level of near perfect performances in the field; his .976 fielding percentage was best in the league . . . led the National League in chances with 658 and in games played with 110 . . . was named one of St. Louis' Baseball Men of the Year by the local BBWAA Chapter . . . voted to UPI and Sporting News post-season All-Star team. 1983 - Was the league's best shortstop in terms of putouts and total chances even though for the first time in five years he was edged out of the lead in the assist category, finished behind Houston's Dickie Thon . . . led the 1983 Cardinals in games played, was second in sacrifice hits and walks and third in doubles, triples, stolen bases and game-winning RBI. 1984 - Was recognized as the National League's premier shortstop on A.P., U.P.I., and The Sporting News post-season teams, and for the second consecutive season was voted the N.L.'s starting shortstop on the All-Star team . . . did not win this wide acclaim on past reputation either, he earned it on the field, leading the N.L. in fielding pct. (.982), while committing a career low 12 errors . . . also sparked the Cardinals with his bat and speed, his .314 mark from the right side of the plate was tops in his career and his 11 sacrifices led the team. On the basepaths, Ozzie was one of the league's most successful thieves making good on 35 of 42 stolen base attempts, a success rate of 83% . . . was also one of the most difficult players to strikeout, averaging a strikeout only every 28.5 plate appearances . . . missed a month of the season when he was hit by a Ed Whitson pitch July 13 that fractured the ulna bone in his right wrist. Returned from the disabled list August 20 in grand fashion going 2-for-4 (double, triple) . . . thrilled opening night crowd with his traditional season opening pre-game backflip, and then closed the evening's festivities with a three-run homer to defeat Pittsburgh, 4-1 . . . finished 10th in N.L. stolen bases (35). 1985 - Prior to home opener, April 15, Cardinals end weeks of trade rumors and speculation by signing Smith to a four year contract extension. Ozzie pays immediate dividend on Redbird investment with 2-for-3 outing in opener and his first home run of season . . . goes through month of April flawless at shortstop, does not commit first error of season until May 4 . . . on June 20, appearing to be a shoe-in for selection to third straight starting assignment at the All-Star Game, Ozzie vows to raise his batting average which stands at .242 before the mid-summer classic. He meets goal by hitting in 19 of next 22 games (22-for-75; .427), raising his average to .290 at the All-Star Break. In the All-Star Game, Smith is the only N.L. player to play the entire game. Six homers on season raises career total to 13, with all 13 coming from the right side of the plate for the switch-hitter . . . continues to be among the leagues toughest batters to strikeout with only 27 Ks in 615 plate appearances one every 22.7 times . . . started 158 games at shortstop . . . tops N.L. shortstops in putouts, assists, total chances and fielding pct. . . . ties major league record held by Owen Busch and Don Kessinger for most seasons (6) with 500 or more assists 1978, '79, '80, '82, '83, '85 . . . ties Michael Doolan's N.L. record for years leading league in assists (5) . . . has at least one hit in each of 6 L.C.S. games . . . hits first left-handed home run in 3,009 professional at-bats off Tom Niedenfuer in ninth inning of Game 5 giving St. Louis a 3-2 win . . . named Most Valuable Player of National League Championship Series . . . post-season awards included sixth consecutive Gold Glove Award at short and selection on Sporting News and UPI N.L. All-Star teams. 1986 - Was the Cardinals' most consistent player leading the team's regulars with a career high .280 average and winning his 7th straight Gold Glove for fielding excellence at shortstop . . . in four plate appearances on 5/1 at SD had a single, double, two walks, stole three bases and scored all three of the Cardinals runs in a 4-3 loss to Padres . . . had a nine-game hitting streak (11-for-34; .324) from 5/3-14 . . . notched seventh career four-hit game on 6/2 at HOU . . . set a personal record with 44-game errorless streak from 7/23-9/15 . . . stole his 150th base as a Cardinal, 8/12 at MTL . . . scored a run in eight straight games from 8/30-9/7 . . . on 9/7 at HOU played his 701st game at shortstop for St. Louis moving into third place on Cards all-time games played by shortstop list behind Dal Maxvill (1054) and Marty Marion (1492) . . . that day also stole 300th career base . . . had hit in 9 of last 10 games (15-for-30; .500) from 9/24-10/5 . . . Smith's fine season was recognized in a number of ways . . . received the fourth highest number of votes in fan balloting for All-Star game and made his fourth straight start . . . named shortstop on The Sporting News and U.P.I. post-season N.L. All-Star teams . . . was club leader in average, hits and walks . . . tied career high in RBI and had career bests in average and walks . . . was sixth in N.L. in walks and seventh in on-base pct. (.376) . . . was again toughest batter in league to strikeout

(1 in 19.4 AB) . . . was on-base by hit or walk in 119 of 144 (83%) starts . . . was 31 of 38 (82%) in steal attempts, tied for seventh best success rate in N.L. . . . marked fifth straight season with 25 or more steals . . . led N.L. shortstops for third straight year in fielding pct. (.978) and tied for loop lead in double plays (96). 1987 - In his 10th season of Major League play, Ozzie posted numbers that earned him strong consideration among MVP candidates . . . finished runner-up in the voting for N.L. MVP and his point total was the highest by a N.L. shortstop since Maury Wills won the MVP Award in 1962 . . . undertook extensive off-season conditioning program that gave him added bulk and endurance . . . after a slow start caused by a sprained ankle suffered in early April, Ozzie raised his average from .172 to .291 (48-for-143; .336) during the course of 36 games . . . reached the .300 mark in batting for the first time in his career with a .303 mark . . . his 75 RBI without hitting a homer were the most by a Cardinal since Milt Stock's 76 RBI without a homer in 1920 . . . the 75 RBI surpassed his previous season high of 54 RBI in 1985 and '86 . . . finished third in the N.L. in hits (182), tied for second in doubles (40), first in sacrifice bunts (12) and was among league leaders in average (.303), stolen bases (43) and walks (89) . . . his 182 hits and 40 doubles were career bests . . . the 40 doubles were the most by a St. Louis shortstop since Dick Groat had 43 in 1963 . . . hit his 200th career double on July 23 at Los Angeles . . . was top vote-getter in fan balloting for the All-Star game with 1,215,183 votes . . . he was the first Cardinal player to ever receive the top vote honors . . . made his fifth straight start and seventh appearance in the All-Star contest . . . OZZIE'S FAVORITE DEFENSIVE PLAYS

Date	Situation	Defensive Gem
1. 4/20/78 vs ATL	4th Inning, 2 Out	Jeff Burroughs ground ball up middle, dives to left, ball carooms up in air but Ozzie grabs bare-handed and throws Burroughs out at first.
2. 8/4/86 vs PHI	9th Inning, 1 Out	Von Hayes hits shallow fly ball to leftfield, outfielder dives headlong toward infield while Ozzie dives head long toward outfield and catches ball with basket catch.
3. 8/6/86 vs PHI	3rd Inning, 1 Out, 1 On	With Ron Reynolds running from first on play, Gary Redus hits infield single to Ozzie, instead of throwing to first, Ozzie throws behind Reynolds who had rounded third base and is tagged out.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

MIKE JORGENSEN — LOUISVILLE

Mike Jorgensen begins his third season as manager of the Cardinals' top minor league team. He guided the Redbirds to a second-place finish in the American Association in 1987.

Mike Jorgensen ended his 15-plus year major league playing career at the end of the 1985 season and was immediately taken on as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league organization. Midway into the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg when Dave Bialas moved up from St. Pete to Louisville to replace Jim Fregosi, who was named manager of the Chicago White Sox. Jorgensen finished out the season at St. Petersburg, where the team finished with the best record in the Florida State League at 88-48.

A lefthanded hitting first baseman-outfielder, Jorgensen was signed originally by the New York Mets out of the June, 1966, free agent draft. He made it to the big leagues with the Mets briefly in 1968 and came up to the majors to stay in 1971. He was traded to the Montreal Expos in 1972 and spent five-plus seasons there. Then he went to the Oakland A's in 1977, to the Texas Rangers in 1978, back to the Mets in 1980, to the Atlanta Braves in 1983 and to the Cardinals in 1984 in a deal with pitcher Ken Dayley in exchange for infielder Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, New Jersey, and his wife, the former Barbara Rice (10-24-70), and three children — Brian Michael (9-30-73), Kristen Leigh (7-7-75) and Eric James (4-7-81) — live in Arlington, Texas. Graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, NY and attended St. John's University for two years. Jorgensen enjoys coaching basketball, quail hunting and cooking in his spare time.

GAYLEN PITTS — ARKANSAS

Gaylen Pitts returned to Arkansas in June last season to take over for Jim Riggleman who became the Cardinals' director of player development after Lee Thomas went to Philadelphia. Pitts led the Travelers to the playoffs, where they lost to Cedar Rapids in the semifinals.

Pitts was manager of the Travelers in 1981-82 before becoming a coach at Louisville for two seasons, manager at Savannah in 1985, manager at Springfield in 1986-87 and manager at Johnson City in 1988. His 1987 Springfield team had a 94-46 record, good for first in the Midwest League. It marked the second straight season Pitts took Springfield to post-season play.

Pitts also managed in the minor leagues with the Oakland A's organization at Modesto in 1978-79.

He originally signed with the Cardinal organization in 1964 out of Mountain Home, Ark., High School, where he lettered in baseball, basketball and football. He also attended the University of Arkansas and Arkansas State University-Jonesboro. Pitts played in the Cardinal minor league organization, reaching as high as triple-A, until 1971. He played in 28 games with Oakland in 1974-75.

Pitts, born June 6, 1946, in Wichita, Kansas, married the former Julia Ray (12-28-85). The couple has one child — Travis Ray (8-8-87). Pitts enjoys trout fishing, snow and water skiing and racquetball. He is involved with the United Way.

DAVE BIALAS — ST. PETERSBURG

Dave Bialas begins his fifth season at St. Petersburg. He led his 1985 team to a wild-card spot in the Florida State League playoffs, his 1986 team won the FSL title — although Bialas was transferred to Louisville in mid-season when Jim Fregosi became manager of the Chicago White Sox — and his 1987 club also won the FSL title.

Before joining St. Pete, Bialas managed Springfield to first-place finishes in 1982 and 1983 and second- and third-place finishes, respectively, in the two halves of the 1984 season at Arkansas.

Bialas spent all of his 10-year minor league career with the Cardinals organization. He began his career in 1973 at Orangeburg and ended it making some appearances as a player-manager at Springfield in 1982.

Bialas, born March 6, 1954, in Houston, Texas, was originally selected by the Cardinals in the June, 1972, free-agent draft following his graduation from Bellaire, TX, High School. He resides in Bellaire during the off-season.

DAN RADISON — SPRINGFIELD

Dan Radison is starting his fourth year as a manager in the Cardinals' organization and his first at Springfield. Last season he was the first manager of the Cardinals' affiliate in Hamilton, Ontario. In 1987 he guided Johnson City to the Southern Division title in the Appalachian League with a 47-27 record, and in 1986 his record of 44-22 at Johnson City was the best in the league and his winning percentage of .667 was tops in the organization.

Prior to becoming a manager in the Cardinals' minor league system, Radison managed in the New York Mets' organizaon. He finished third in divisional play both seasons with Kingsport and Little Falls, respectively.

He was the Cardinals' 10-round selection in the June, 1972, free-agent draft. He caught for Sarasota, St. Petersburg, Modesto, Arkansas and Tulsa in the Cardinals' organization from 1972-74.

Radison attended Columbia, IL, High School in 1964-68. He graduated from SIU-Carbondale in 1972 with a B.S. in health education and received his M.A. in counseling from Nova University in 1980. He resides in Relington Shores, FL.

KEITH CHAMPION — SAVANNAH

Keith Champion begins his second season as a manager in professional baseball. Last season, he led Savannah to a 68-67 record. Prior to becoming a manager, Champion coached with Arkansas in 1987, Springfield in 1986 and Savannah in 1985.

A catcher in the Cardinals' organization from 1982-84, Champion was an All-American catcher at Southwest Missouri State University (Springfield) from 1977-82. He graduated from Southwest Missouri State in 1981 with a B.A. degree in fine arts.

Champion, born September 19, 1959, in Granite City, IL, graduated from Granite City South High School in 1977. He earned all-state honors as a catcher. His brother, Kirk, is a minor league pitching coach for the Chicago White Sox and his father is a scout for the Kansas City Royals.

JOE PETTINI — HAMILTON

Joe Pettini enters his first season as a manager in professional baseball. He coached at Louisville the past two seasons.

Pettini played all or part of four seasons in the major leagues with the San Francisco Giants, most recently in 1983. He originally was signed in 1977 by the Montreal Expos as a non-drafted free-agent before going to the Giants in 1980 to complete a trade. He was signed by the Cardinals to a Louisville contract in 1984 and played with the Redbirds until retiring after the 1986 season.

Pettini, born January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, West Virginia, graduated from Brooke High School (Wellsburg, WV) in 1973. He obtained a B.A. in education from Mercer University (Macon, GA) in 1977. Pettini married the former Barbara Sperlazza (11-21-81). The couple has two children — Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

MARK DeJOHN — JOHNSON CITY

Mark DeJohn begins his fourth season as a manager in the Cardinals' minor league organization and first at Johnson City. He piloted Savannah to a 75-60 record and second-place finishes in both halves his first season in 1986. He also managed at Savannah in 1987 before going to Springfield last season. Springfield finished 81-58 a year ago and placed first in the South Division of the Midwest League in the second half.

DeJohn was a minor league instructor for the Detroit Tigers in 1984 and a coach and manager at Birmingham in 1985 before leaving the Tiger organization in mid-season to become a coach for the Kansas City Royals' Eugene club in the Northwest League.

He attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, CT. Signed originally with the New York Mets in 1971 and played shortstop in their minor league system until being released in 1977. He signed with the Toronto Blue Jays but never played in their organization and then was signed by Detroit. His only major league experience was 24 games with the Tigers in 1982 and he finished his playing career the following season.

DeJohn, born September 18, 1953, married the former Judith Marie Yaskolka (2-22-74). The couple has two children — Timothy Stephen (1-31-84) and Stephanie Leigh (2-21-88) — and live in New Britain, CT.

FARM SYSTEM COACHES

JORGE ARANZAMENDI — LOUISVILLE

Jorge Aranzamendi returns for his seventh season as a coach in the Cardinals' farm system and his first at Louisville. He coached at Arkansas in 1982-83, at Savannah in 1984 and at Johnson City in 1985-88. Arazamendi took over as manager at Johnson City last season when Gaylen Pitts went to Arkansas to replace Jim Riggleman. The Cardinals finished 41-31.

Arazamendi had a nine-year minor league career from 1971-81. He played in the Atlanta Braves' organization until 1977 and then signed as a free-agent with the Cardinals. He played the infield at all levels of the organization.

Arazamendi, born August 26, 1953, in Santruce, Puerto Rico, also coaches in his native country during the off-season.

CHRIS MALONEY — ARKANSAS

Chris Maloney begins his second season as a coach in the Cardinals' minor league organization. He coached at Springfield last season.

The former outfielder-first baseman originally was signed by the New York Mets as a non-drafted free-agent in June, 1983. He was purchased by the Cardinals from the Mets in 1986 and played for Springfield that season.

A 1979 graduate of St. Joseph High School in Jackson, Mississippi, Maloney graduated from Mississippi State University in 1983. He likes bass fishing, deer and duck hunting and golfing. Maloney is involved with the Multiple Sclerosis Society and lives in Jackson, MS, in the off-season.

RICK COLBERT — SPRINGFIELD

Rick Colbert begins his second season as a minor league coach. He coached at Arkansas last season.

Colbert played minor league baseball for 11 years with the Boston Red Sox, Houston Astros, Minnesota Twins and Cardinals. He retired after the 1987 season, his second with Louisville.

Colbert graduated from Joliet, Illinois, High School in 1977. He married the former Mary Elizabeth Sullivan (6-19-86). The couple has two children — Casey Sullivan (10-19-86) and Jacob Richard (6-7-88). Colbert, born September 19, 1959, in Joliet, IL, enjoys carpentry, deer hunting and drawing.

MARTY MASON — ST. PETERSBURG

Marty Mason is starting his fourth season as a coach in the Cardinals' farm system. He coached at St. Petersburg in 1986-87 before going to Savannah last season.

Mason originally was signed by the New York Yankees' organization in 1980 and came to the Cardinals in December, 1982, after he had played for the Cardinals' Springfield club on loan from the Yankees in 1982. Mason played for Springfield, Arkansas and St. Petersburg with the Cardinals. He retired after pitching in four games as a player-coach with St. Pete in 1986.

Mason, born April 4, 1958, in Central City, Kentucky, attended Central Alabama Academy in 1975-76 and Western Kentucky University in 1977-80. He married the former Lynn Bradford (2-22-86). The couple has one child — Brandy Leigh (8-17-88). Mason enjoys bass fishing and is a small-engine mechanic in his spare time.

LUIS MELENDEZ — JOHNSON CITY

Luis Melendez begins his second season as a coach in the Cardinals' minor league system. He coached at Hamilton last season.

A former outfielder, Melendez signed his first professional contract in 1968 with the Cardinals and played eight years in the major leagues with St. Louis and the San Diego Padres. He enjoyed his best season in 1973, when he had career highs in games (121), runs (35), hits (91), doubles (18) and RBI (35).

Melendez, born August 11, 1949, in Aibonito, Puerto Rico, still makes his off-season home there.

JAY NORTH — SAVANNAH

Jay North begins his first season as a coach in the Cardinals' farm system. He retired as a player after the 1988 season.

North spent nine years as a pitcher in the Cardinals' organization with Johnson City, Erie, Gastonia, Macon, Springfield, Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He was named to the Midwest League all-star team in 1984-85 with Springfield.

North, born June 21, 1962, in Alameda, California, is a 1980 graduate of Ygnacio Valley High School, Concord, California.

JOE CUNNINGHAM III — HAMILTON

Joe Cunningham, son of former Cardinal great and current Director of Community Relations, Joe Cunningham, begins his first season as a coach in the Cardinals' minor league system.

Cunningham played in the Cardinals' organization for five seasons between 1984-88 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield. In 1986 at Springfield he hit a routine fly ball in the ninth inning of a game June 22 at Madison that killed a nighthawk and dropped untouched for a double and the game-winning RBI.

Cunningham, born January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community College, Panama City, Florida, in 1981-82. Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing.

FARM SYSTEM INSTRUCTORS

STEVE BRAUN
HITTING INSTRUCTOR

Steve Braun begins his fourth season as a minor league hitting instructor for the Cardinals. He retired from active play in mid-1986 from the Cardinals' Louisville farm team.

Braun had a 15-year major league career from 1971-85. At the end of the 1985 he was the pinch-hit leader among active players with 113, which ranks seventh on the all-time list. Braun spent the last five years of his big league career with the Cardinals, primarily as a pinch-hitter. His 60 pinch-hits as a Cardinal make him the club's all-time leader. Braun also played with the Minnesota Twins, Seattle Mariners, Kansas City Royals and Toronto Blue Jays.

Braun, born May 8, 1948, in Trenton, New Jersey, graduated from Hopewell Valley High School in Pennington, New Jersey, in 1966. He is married to the former Diane Klabunde and has two children — Erin Lane (11-5-76) and Stephen Blair (10-16-78). Braun enjoys golf, bass fishing and weight training and is involved with the YMCA. He lives in the Minneapolis area.

BOB MILLIKEN
PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

Bob Milliken returns for his 13th year in his second term as a farm system pitching instructor for the Cardinals. 'Bo' also served as the organization's pitching instructor from 1971-75 and then became a pitching coach in 1976 for St. Louis. He was the Red Birds' bullpen coach from 1965-70. He pitched batting practice for the Cardinals in 1963-64.

Milliken was an active player for 15 years. He played in the Dodger organization from 1947-59. He contributed an 8-4 record as long relief man for the pennant-winning Dodger club in 1953 and pitched against the Yankees in the World Series. He joined the Cardinal organization in 1960 and pitched for Red Bird farm clubs at Memphis, Atlanta and Charleston.

Milliken, born August 25, 1926, in Majorsville, West Virginia, married the former Martha Knight (10-24-53). The couple has two children — Brian Knight (1-13-58) and Beth Lynn (3-16-60). Milliken enjoys bass fishing, deer hunting and country western music.

MARK RIGGINS
PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

Riggins begins his first season as a minor league pitching instructor with the Cardinals after coaching the last five seasons. He coached for Johnson City in 1984, St. Petersburg in 1985, Arkansas in 1986, Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Pete in 1988. He served as a pitching coach for Mayaguez of the Puerto Rican League this past winter.

Riggins had a five-year minor league playing career in the St. Louis system 1979-83 with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He played on loan at Charlotte part of the 1983 season. In 1980 Riggins led Florida State League pitchers in games (57) and saves (13) and was named to the league's all-star team.

Riggins, born January 23, 1957, in Loogootee, Indiana, graduated from Loogootee High School in 1975 and graduated from Murray (KY) State University in 1979 with a B.S. in agriculture business. He was a three-year all-conference pitcher at Murray State. Riggins married the former Tammie Pierce (2-19-83). The couple has one child — Chelsea Lee (12-14-86). Riggins enjoys bass and crappie fishing, deer and quail hunting and training bird dogs in his spare time. He lives in Murray, Kentucky, in the off-season.

RUNNING REDBIRDS

The Running Redbirds were off to the races once again in 1988 with 234 stolen bases...the Cardinals became the first team since the Detroit Tigers (1909-15) to steal 200 or more bases in seven straight seasons...the Cardinals had six stolen bases on five occasions (2 times vs New York; one time vs San Francisco, Houston and Los Angeles)...Vince Coleman, Ozzie Smith, Willie McGee and Tom Brunansky each had multiple steal games and the Cardinals had multiple steals in 62 of their 162 games...the steal trio of Coleman (81), Smith (57) and McGee (41) became the first trio in Redbird history to each steal 40 or more bases in a season.

THE RUNNING GAME

SEVEN YEARS IN A ROW: The Running Redbirds stole 234 bases in 1988 marking the seventh straight year the club has hit the 200 mark (1982-200, 1983-207, 1984-220, 1985-314, 1986-262, 1987-248). Only two other teams have stolen 200 bases for seven straight years, and the feat had not been accomplished since 1915. The following is a list of clubs which have stolen 200 or more bases in five or more seasons:

Chicago Cubs 1901-1908 (8 Seasons)
Detroit Tigers 1909-1915 (7 Seasons)
ST. LOUIS CARDINALS 1982-1988 (7 Seasons)
Cincinnati Reds 1909-1914 (6 Seasons)
New York Giants 1909-1914 (6 Seasons)
Philadelphia Athletics 1909-1914 (6 Seasons)
New York Yankees 1910-1914 (5 Seasons)
New York Giants 1903-1907 (5 Seasons)

Other Cardinal teams to steal 200 or more bases were: 204 in 1892, 250 in 1893, 207 in 1899 and 243 in 1900.

5 x 20: The Cardinals, in 1986, had five players accumulate 20 or more stolen bases — Vince Coleman, 107; Ozzie Smith, 31; Terry Pendleton, 24; Tom Herr, 22 and Andy Van Slyke, 21. The Redbirds club record for most runners with 20 or more steals is six players accomplished in the 1892 and 1900 seasons. The last time a major league team had six players with 20 or more stolen bases was in 1980 when the Houston Astros did it with Cesar Cedeno, 48; Jose Cruz, 36; Terry Puhl, 27; Joe Morgan, 24; Rafael Landestoy, 23 and Enos Cabel, 21. The Cardinals, in 1985, set a team record when five players exceeded 30 stolen bases — Vince Coleman, 110; Willie McGee, 56; Andy Van Slyke, 34; Tom Herr, 31 and Ozzie Smith, 31.

STEAL TRIO: Cardinal base burglers Vince Coleman, Ozzie Smith and Willie McGee in 1988 became the first Redbird trio to each steal 40+ bases in a season. Coleman (81), Smith (57) and McGee (41) combined for 179 steals. Their 179 steals were more than eight National League team totals in 1988.

THE CARDINALS' WORLD SERIES STORY YEAR-BY-YEAR

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth hit .625 for the Series and had three home runs in one game, and Gehrig had a .545 batting average. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs, and he had nine runs-batted-in.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were scored by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge on the Athletics, defeating Philadelphia, four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas-House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner K.M. Landis order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had collided with Tiger third baseman Marvin Owen in the sixth inning, and his actions so infuriated the Detroit fans that they bombarded Ducky with fruit, vegetables and debris when he went to his position in left field in the seventh inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games; lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski hit a decisive triple in the second game, then clinched the finale with a two-run home run in the ninth inning.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 as they defeated the Redbirds, four games to one. The key play of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth inning, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on a sacrifice bunt and jarred the baseball loose from Kurowski's hand. Billy Johnson then tripled to drive in three runs, the Yankees went on to score five times in the inning and Manager Joe McCarthy's powerhouse coasted to victory. The New York Yankees also won the next two games to take the championship.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated and the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The pitchers struck out a record total of 92 batters, 49 of them by Cardinal moundsmen and 43 by the Browns' hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the last half of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's hit to left center, a sprint that surprised relay man Johnny Pesky of the Red Sox and allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand-slam home run to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who topped Cardinal hitters in the Series with a .478 average smashed a 10th inning home run to win the fifth game, and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig contributed valuable relief help.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in the three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs, a Cardinal Series record.

1968 The Cardinals had a three-game-to-one lead, but the Detroit Tigers stormed back to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship in 23 years. Lefthander Mickey Lolich, a motorcycle enthusiast who played in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain all year, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds, and set records by striking out 17 batters in the first game and a total of 35 for the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964.

1982 The Cardinals came back from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship Trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while Bruce Sutter was credited with one win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game for the Redbirds in a rain delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Darrell Porter was named MVP on the strength of his timely hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then taking four straight games (the final one climaxed by a 3-run, 9th inning homer by Jack Clark). In the World Series, they won the first two games on the road at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games when their hitting deserted them. The pitching of John Tudor and Todd Worrell took the first game, and Terry Pendleton's ninth inning double with the bases loaded gave them a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen, then lost Game No. 4 to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1. Key game was No. 6, when the Cardinals carried a 1-0 lead into the ninth inning. The first Kansas City man up in the ninth reached first on a bad call by an umpire, and the Royals then went on to score twice to win, 2-1. Game No. 7 was no contest—it went to the Royals, 11-0.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals got off to a slow start by dropping their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Upon returning to Busch Stadium for game #3, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night saw utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for the injured Terry Pendleton, lead the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper by Lawless was just the second of his major league career and it evened the series at 2-2. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game #5, as both Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases. Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. The Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the 5th inning of Game #6, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to a 11-5 come-from-behind win and sent the Series to a seventh and deciding game. Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs in the second inning and the Twins Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 tie with an infield single in the 6th inning, as Minnesota won its' first World Championship with a 4-2 win in Game #7. The Series was the first ever in which the home team won each of the seven games.

OTHER CARDINAL HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis back in the N.L. The team was called the Browns, later became the Perfectos.

1899 The ballclub changed the team nickname from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 Team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1922 Rogers Hornsby won the triple crown with 42 home runs, 152 RBI's and a .401 batting average.

1924 Hornsby won the National League batting title with a .424 average, highest mark in the circuit since 1900.

1925 Hornsby again won the triple crown with 39 home runs, 143 RBI's and a .403 average.

1937 Joe (Ducky) Medwick won the triple crown with 31 home runs, 154 RBI's and a .374 batting average.

1940 First night game in St. Louis for Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize set a St. Louis home run record of 43.

1946 Home paid attendance topped one million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third National League Most Valuable Player award and led the league in virtually every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs-batted-in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 Cardinals played the first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, then renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a doubleheader against the Giants at Busch Stadium on May 2.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record when he extended his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22 when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch-hitting in the sixth inning, collected a double against the Cubs at Wrigley Field in Chicago on May 13, and that dramatic blow was the 3,000th hit of his career.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a solid bid for his eighth batting title as he hit .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened the new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. The winning run scored when Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first inning single and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. Cardinals hosted this year's All-Star game at the new park.

1967 Home paid attendance went over the two million mark for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for an ERA of 1.12, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young Award and he was also named MVP.

1969 On September 15, Steve Carlton struck out 19 New York Mets in a nine inning game to set a major league record. He lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. He struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different innings. His record was tied in 1970 by New York's Tom Seaver. The surface at Busch Stadium is changed from grass to artificial turf.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second National League Cy Young Award.

1971 Torre wins batting title with .363 average and is named MVP. Gibson pitches his first no-hitter, beating the Pirates, 11-0, on August 14. Schoendienst establishes longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Brock became first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extends his major league record for most season 200 or more strikeouts to nine. Gibson sets National League record with his 2,786th strikeout, the most lifetime for a right-handed pitcher. Brock extends his record for most consecutive season, 50 or more stolen bases to 8. Cardinals draw 50,000,000th fan since 1900.

OTHER CARDINAL HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1973 Brock steals his 600th base and moves into 9th place on the all-time list. Brock sets major league record for stealing 50 or more bases for 9 consecutive years. Gibson moves into second place on all-time strikeout list. Torre gets his 2000th hit and 1000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' one-season mark and Max Carey's National League career record. Lou moves from ninth to second on major league's all-time career stolen base list. Bob Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000, the third highest home attendance in their history. Red Birds and Mets play 25 inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride named "Rookie Of The Year."

1975 Lou Brock gets 2500th hit and 800th stolen base of his career. Bob Gibson retires after 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by SRO crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day turnout of 50,548 is largest regular season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in league batting race with .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 270th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal Manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on his managing duties, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in the double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

OTHER CARDINAL HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within ½ game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post-season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries. . . The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row. . . Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record. . . The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the rest of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year with 110 stolen bases and a batting average of .267; Whitey Herzog was Manager of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. . . Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to ever steal 100 bases twice; left-handed rookie pitcher Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight gold glove and Todd Worrell was named 1986 N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor. . Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids left by injury. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9½ games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1½ games as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win at New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. . . 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 The defending National League Champions struggled with injuries and a lack of offense in the early part of the season and were never able to rebound. After acquiring Tom Brunansky in an April trade with Minnesota, the Redbirds climbed back to within four games of first on June 30, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense and the Cardinals dropped 19 games off the pace by the end of July. Several Redbirds enjoyed fine seasons in 1988, including newcomer Jose DeLeon, who became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark despite winning just 5 games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season and speedster Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the 4th straight year. The '88 campaign also marked the emergence of Scott Terry, Tom Pagnozzi and Jose Oquendo as prominent everyday players, while rookie reliever John Costello proved valuable out of the bullpen. Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season and became the club's regular second baseman mid-way thru the season. Trades that brought such names as Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departed players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. The turnstyles continued to click in '88, as the Cardinals drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch Stadium despite their 5th place finish.

ATTENDANCE STREAK

The Cardinals drew 2,892,629 paid fans during the 1988 season to Busch Stadium. It marked the seventh year in a row they've passed 2,000,000. It also marked the 26th consecutive year they have passed the 1,000,000 level — the only other team that can make that statement is the Los Angeles Dodgers, who have done it every year since they moved to L.A. in 1958.

CARDINALS' BROADCASTING — 1988

RADIO

KMOX-Radio, St. Louis, will once again be the flagship station for a network of approximately 135 stations covering eleven states, broadcasting all 1988 games with commentary by Jack Buck and Mike Shannon.

TELEVISION

KPLR (Channel 11), St. Louis, will televise 60 Cardinal games locally, and selected games will be fed to a network of approximately 40 stations covering eight states.

CENCOM CABLE system will televise 50 Cardinal home games on a pay-per-view basis. The CENCOM games also will be available on a pay basis to other cable systems in the St. Louis area.

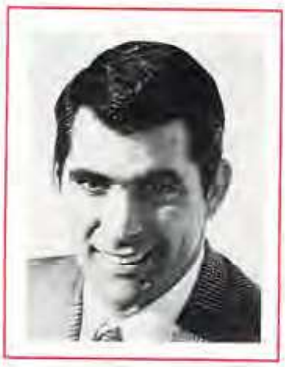
CARDINALS' BROADCASTERS

JACK BUCK

Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987 when he was inducted into the broadcast wing of Baseball's Hall of Fame, as the Ford C. Frick Award winner.

The native of Holyoke, MA, who received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Ohio State, got his start in baseball broadcasting the play-by-play for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester.

Jack, KMOX's sports director, has been involved at one time or another in the broadcasting of almost every sports event imaginable. He has received much acclaim for his work as the voice of the National Football League and also handled the first telecast of the old American Football League.

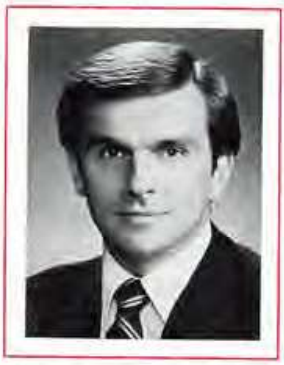


MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 18th season in the Cardinals' broadcast booth. His nine years as a Cardinal player and one-year in the front office of the Redbirds gives Mike a unique insight to his commentary and color, which is only heightened by his zeal for the game.

The 49-year-old native of St. Louis first made it to the big leagues in 1962 and went on to star on the Cardinals' World Championship teams of 1964 and 1967 and their National League pennant winner in 1968.

Mike joined the Cardinals front office as assistant director of promotions and sales in 1971. His career had been cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease.



KEN WILSON

Ken Wilson is a veteran broadcaster who knows how to capture the magic moments in a baseball season to their fullest. His calls of Pete Rose's 4,192 career hit in 1985 and Tom Herr's game-winning ninth-inning home run down the stretch in the Cardinals 1985 pennant drive will long bring chills to baseball fans.

Wilson, a native of Detroit and a graduate of the University of Michigan, has called baseball play-by-play during his career for the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League, the Seattle Mariners and the Cincinnati Reds in addition to his work with the Cardinals the past four seasons.

Ken is also recognized as one of the top hockey play-by-play men and handles those chores for ESPN's and KPLR's hockey telecasts.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition, going from one of St. Louis' best loved athletes as "the Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' bullpen of the 1970s to one of the town's favorite broadcasters of the 1980s.

Hrabosky's fast rise in the broadcasting field comes as no surprise. During his 13-year major league career, which saw Al pileup 97 career saves and earn Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, he was already preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

BUSCH STADIUM

Busch Stadium, the home of the St. Louis Cardinals, was officially opened on May 12, 1966. Since that time, the facility has become the focal point of an extensive downtown St. Louis redevelopment effort which has resulted in millions of dollars in new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Busch Stadium is owned and operated by Civic Center Corporation, one of the Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. Anheuser-Busch, originally the largest single investor in the corporation which constructed Busch Stadium, purchased the remaining shares of stock in 1981 and now operates Busch Stadium and other Civic Center properties.

Anheuser-Busch and Civic Center Corporation have made a number of additions and improvements to the facility since it was acquired in 1981, adding to the fans' total entertainment experience.

One of the most recent major improvements was a massive seating replacement and installation project which began in August of 1986 and was completed just prior to the Cardinals' 1987 home opener. All of Busch Stadium's original seats were replaced with new ones and additional seats were added. Prior to the 1988 season over 1,000 new seats were installed making permanent seating for baseball over 54,000 and over 55,000 for football. The color of the new seats is red.

Prior to the start of the baseball season in 1986, the installation of a closed-circuit television monitor system was completed in Busch Stadium at selected concession stands. The new television monitors allow fans to watch live game action and replays while visiting the stands. Also in 1986, the enlargement and complete renovation of Busch Stadium's 39 original deluxe box suites took place.

In 1984 a new Astro Turf field surface covering was installed.. The new turf is Astro Turf-8, a permeable covering which permits water to flow through the turf to a system of underground drains, alleviating rain delays and time-consuming vacuuming of water from the field surface. The stadium installed its first Astro Turf field in 1969.

Another major addition was the installation of a new, state-of-the-art scoreboard system. Erected in 1983 prior to the baseball season, the scoreboard system features a 22' x 30' color video CRT board with replay capabilities and a black and white matrix board with animation capabilities.

A new metal halide lighting system was also installed in 1983 to improve the fans' viewing of the game.

Since the first event was held in Busch Stadium (when the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings on May 12, 1966) over 57 million people have passed through the stadium's turnstiles to view professional baseball, football, soccer as well as collegiate, high school and amateur sporting events, and a variety of other entertainment events, including circuses and concerts.

The St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame is located within Busch Stadium. The entrance is on level 3 of the stadium near gate 6.

The stadium's basic structure is concrete, with the exception of the movable seating sections, which are steel. The nearly circular stadium has an outside diameter of approximately 800 feet, and covers an area of more than 12 acres.

Busch Stadium is essentially a two-deck stadium, with approximately half the seats in each deck. Seats completely surround the playing field with no posts or columns to obscure the spectator's view. Two sections of 3,600 seats each can be moved from a position along the first and third base lines to a position parallel to the football field.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is from 10 to 30 feet lower than the surrounding streets. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to the seating area. There are eight major entrances.

BUSCH STADIUM GROUND RULES

OUTFIELD AREA

Fair ball bounding into field boxes, bleachers or enclosed area in left or right field corners or going through or under fences — TWO BASES.

DUGOUTS

Ball rolling onto top step of dugouts (which are at ground level) is IN PLAY.

Photographer's area on outfield end of each dugout shall be regarded as part of the dugout.

Ball thrown by pitcher from the rubber to catch baserunner off first or third base that goes into stand or dugout — ONE BASE.

A pitch, thrown or batted ball that hits anyone on the playing field except as otherwise provided for in the Official Rules is IN PLAY.

Any batted ball hitting automatic tarpaulin container would be a FOUL BALL.

Ball going through wire behind plate or lodging in it — ONE BASE on throw by pitcher — TWO BASES on throw by fielder.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES BEGINS
THE WEEK OF
OCTOBER 1 IN THE EASTERN DIVISION CITY

1989 WORLD SERIES SCHEDULE

WORLD SERIES BEGINS
SATURDAY,
OCTOBER 14 IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE CITY

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 24 or 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

RULES OF INTEREST

CURFEW: All night games must be called at 1:00 A.M. (local time). If an inning is started prior to 1:00 A.M. (local time), it can be completed. A game called at the end of a complete inning with the score tied after nine innings is a suspended game.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

GAME WINNING RBI: The RBI which gives a club the lead it never relinquishes.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6 P.M. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 P.M. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 P.M. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night double-headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d). . .A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

AMATEUR DRAFT

FREE AGENT DRAFT SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Meetings are conducted by conference phone. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to exclusive right of negotiation with that player from the date of selection until 10 days prior to next draft. There are two phases of each draft:

Regular Phase: Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA or AA rosters, but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

Secondary Phase: Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age now drafted in the regular phase). It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it was unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the written consent of that player. The order of selection is by lot with the 26 major league clubs divided into two 13 team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

BEHIND THE SCENES

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stan London has been the Cardinals head physician for the past 19 seasons, since his associate, Dr. I. C. Middleman passed away in September, 1968. The 63-year-old Springfield, IL, native received his M.D. Degree from Washington University in 1949.

While at Washington University, Dr. London excelled in baseball and basketball. He is regarded as the finest basketball player ever at Wash. U. During the pursuit of his doctorate, Dr. London coached the baseball team and was the assistant basketball coach at Washington University.

He is a fellow in the American Board of Surgeons and also the American College of Surgeons, an assistant professor of surgery at Washington Medical and a partner in Parkcrest Surgical Associates.

Dr. London was the team physician for the old St. Louis Hawks of the National Basketball Association throughout the team's entire stay in St. Louis, 1956-1967. He has attended to Cardinal baseball players' medical needs since 1956.

One of St. Louis' top amateur athletes ever, he is a member of the Springfield (IL) High School Hall of Fame, Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame, Missouri Sports Medicine Hall of Fame and was the first inductee to Missouri's Handball Hall of Fame.

Dr. London and his wife, Jackie, have three children and two grandchildren.

GENE GIESELMANN

Gene Gieselmann is in his 19th season as the St. Louis Cardinals head trainer. The 42-year-old Gieselmann has been a trainer in the Cardinals' organization since 1968.

In 1968, following his graduation from Wichita, St., Gieselmann was appointed trainer of the Redbirds Class A, St. Petersburg team. He quickly rose to become the assistant trainer at the major league level in 1969 and has been the team's head trainer since 1971.

Gieselmann is a certified trainer by the National Athletic Association and is licensed by the state of Missouri in Athletic Training. Gene runs four clinics in the St. Louis area for the treatment of sports injuries.

During the 1986 off-season, Gieselmann traveled through Japan as the trainer for Major League Baseball's all-star team that played seven games against a team comprised of Japanese All-Stars. He continued his trip serving as trainer for the Survival of Fitness in Sydney, Australia.

Gene was trainer for the 1982 and 1987 National League All-Star teams and has been trainer for Superstars, Superteams and Battle of the Network Stars television programs. Gene is on the advisory board of the Missouri Humane Society.

Gene and his wife, Roseanna, have one son, Johnathon.

BRAD HENDERSON
ASSISTANT TRAINER

Brad Henderson is entering his second season as the St. Louis Cardinals assistant trainer. The 27-year-old Henderson joined the Cardinals' training staff in May of 1988 and has been a trainer in the St. Louis organization since 1985.

Henderson, a native of Ballwin, MO, is a 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri. Brad's first trainers position was with Johnson City of the Appalachian League in 1985. He was head trainer at Arkansas (Texas League) prior to joining the major league club this past season.

Brad has worked with the training staff of the St. Louis football Cardinals, as well as the University of Missouri football and baseball teams.

Brad is married to the former Julie Lynn Rounkles. He spent this past off-season assisting trainer Gene Gieselmann run his sports medicine clinics in the St. Louis area.

C.J. CHERRE
TRAVELING SECRETARY

C.J. Cherre is responsible for handling the Cardinals' travel and road accommodations and also all spring training arrangements at St. Petersburg.

The 37-year-old native of Norfolk, Virginia, who grew up in St. Louis, is entering his 13th season with the club. He is a 1970 graduate of St. Louis University High School and went on to get a bachelor of arts degree (cum laude) from St. Louis University in 1974.

Cherre began his Cardinal career working in the group sales department in 1977 and '78. C.J. was named assistant director of public relations in January, 1979, and held that position through 1980. He assumed his present position in January, 1981.

C.J., an ardent Notre Dame football supporter, enjoys swimming, contemporary music and fine dining. C.J.'s wife's name is Debbie.

BUDDY BATES
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Buddy Bates is in his seventh season as the Cardinals' equipment manager. Buddy succeeded Butch Yatkeman, who was with the Redbirds for 59 years before retiring after the 1982 season.

The 36-year-old Bates joined the Cardinals in 1969 and was a bat boy from 1969-71. He was named assistant equipment manager and visiting clubhouse man in 1972 and held that position until he moved into his current role in 1983.

Bates is a graduate of Central St. Louis High School where he lettered in basketball. He later attended Florissant Valley Community College and the University of Missouri at St. Louis. In his limited spare time, Buddy is a big supporter of St. Louis University's basketball program and enjoys trout fishing.

RIP ROWAN
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rip Rowan is entering into his first season as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager. Rowan, a native of St. Louis, has been associated with the Cardinals since 1978, when he served as the visitors' bat boy.

The 25-year-old Rowan graduated from Pattonville High School in 1982 and is working on obtaining a degree in business administration from Meramec Community College.

Rip, who began assistant in the Cardinal clubhouse in 1983, following two seasons as bat boy, enjoys watching hockey and baseball in his spare time.

JERRY RISCH
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Jerry Risch is in his 23rd season with the Cardinals and has held his current position as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager for each of the past six seasons.

The 36-year-old Risch began working for the Cardinals in 1966 as the umpire's room manager. From 1969-70, Risch served as the Redbirds' bat boy. He began working as an assistant in the visitor's clubhouse in 1971 and was named to his current position in 1983.

Risch is a graduate of Southwest High School, where he lettered in soccer. He later attended Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Jerry is married to the former Mary Catherine Arnold and the couple has two children — Jessica and Joseph. Jerry enjoys trout fishing and photography in his spare time.
